

Holocaust Survivors & Friends Education Center Learning About the Holocaust

“Facing History and Ourselves” with Dr. Mary Johnson

Wednesday, October 24, 2012

7:30 p.m.

A dynamic speaker, Dr. Mary Johnson has conducted seminars and workshops related to the Holocaust and modern genocide, researched issues dealing with the Holocaust and human rights and written and co-edited study guides and publications related to all areas of Facing History. She is Senior Historian at Facing History and Ourselves and an adjunct professor for Masters in Holocaust and Genocide Studies at Stockton College, where she teaches a variety of courses on the Holocaust and recent genocides. Dr. Johnson is on the Human Rights Committee of the New York State Council for the Social Studies and Chair of the International Visitor's committee of the National Council for the Social Studies.

An accomplished author and historian, her publications include curricula, Elements of Time, Holocaust Testimonies on using Holocaust testimonies and oral history, Teaching about the Holocaust and Genocide, Crimes Against Humanity and Civilization: The Genocide of the Armenians, The Nuremberg Trials, Samuel Bak art exhibition 'Icons of Loss: memories of the Holocaust in Eastern Europe', Reader's Companion to The Diary of a Young Girl: Anne Frank, The Definitive Edition, Facing History Resource Book, two PBS series Daring to Resist: Three Women Face the Holocaust, and Auschwitz: Inside the Nazi State.

Facing History and Ourselves, dedicated to combating bigotry and nurturing democracy, trains more than 29,000 educators and reaches more than two million young people annually.

Jewish Federation Community Services Building, The Golub Center
184 Washington Avenue Ext, Albany, NY 12203 / Phone (518) 783-7800, ext 235

Free and open to the community